New Mexico Public Education Goes Remote

It has been a while, since the last Band Newsletter. The primary reason for this, is that things continue to change so rapidly that we didn't want to be sharing information that was out-of-date, inaccurate or otherwise misleading. We now have some guidance and some news for you.

As you all know, the entire State of New Mexico is under a "Stay at Home" order from the Governor. In an effort to "flatten the curve" we've all been advised to remain in our homes, practice social distancing, etc. So, all schools will be physically closed for the remainder of the school year. HOWEVER, education will continue. Teachers are receiving guidance from administrators on how to do this every single day. Some teachers will use Canvas, others Google Classroom and/or Zoom. It is absolutely imperative that your students check their LCPS email multiple times per day. This is the official way they will be receiving information from teachers. If students have trouble accessing that email, you should reach out to the teacher who has been contacting you weekly. Virtual learning will begin on Monday, April 6.

LCPS is also distributing about 12,000 meals per day.

The current list of meal sites can be found at lcps.net. Then click the Coronavirus button for "More" and then click the "Meals" button.

If you know of someone (parent, student, etc.) who is experiencing particular difficulties, you can refer them to the crisis line at 1-855-nmcrisis. Otherwise, you can reach out to me and I will do my best to provide the appropriate support/referrals. This is a very stressful time and it is so important for us to take care of each other - from a safe distance, of course.

Dear High School Seniors of 2020,
You were born when the world was grieving over 9/11.

And you are graduating as the world grieves a pandemic.

Although your two biggest launches into freedom (birth and graduation) have taken place in the midst of tragedies...

Just know that the world is an amazing, loving, beautiful place. And it is waiting for you with open arms.

We grieve with you

That your senior year is ending this way.

But we can't wait to see how you overcome and soar.

YOU WERE MADE FOR THIS!

(Jennifer Allwood)

CHS Band Meeting Tuesday via Zoom

Mr. K. has posted a Zoom meeting invitation on the Band App. Please take some time today to set up a Zoom account and to try to become familiar with the basic operations of the app.

We will be having a Zoom meeting tomorrow (Wednesday, April 1) at 1:00 pm. We are asking that each family join the meeting using only one device. We need to have space in the meeting for all band students. The Band Directors will be discussing how band classes will function, review the syllabus for the remainder of the school year, walk us all through the programs they will be using (Smart Music and Canvas) and answering questions related to Band.

Once the meeting is over, the recorded presentation will be available on the Band app.

Remember, all of this information will be coordinated by the teachers through student LCPS email accounts. Start getting used to checking those accounts frequently.

Disney Refunds Update

Ever since the trip was officially cancelled, we have been working with vendors to obtain refunds. Here is the status, as we understand it right now:

All Aboard America: They have agreed to refund 70% of money paid to them. We have asked them for 100%, in light of the extenuating circumstances. This is a negotiation in progress and all parties have been very friendly.

Subway: This money has been refunded.

Hotel: This money had never been paid and is therefore 100% refundable.

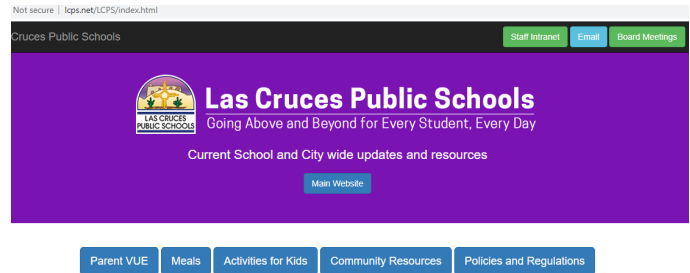

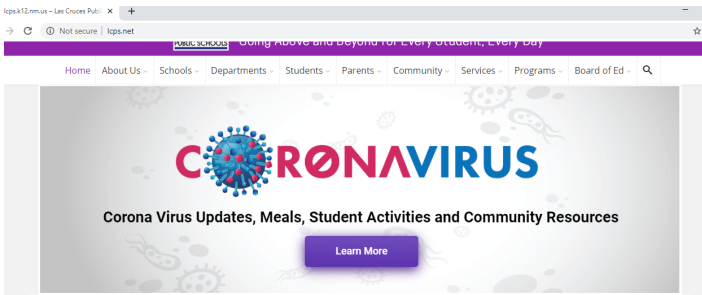

Disney: We have to send our paper tickets back to them and then they will process the refund in full. We weren't able to access the tickets (stored in the Band room) until yesterday. They will be returned asap for a full refund.

Universal: They have agreed to refund the money in full. We are waiting for that to be processed.

Once all of this is back in our account, we will begin issuing refund checks. We will only be writing one check per family. Please email Jeni to let her know who your check should be made out to. Also, include your mailing address. You will receive notice when we begin to issue these checks.

Online Resources

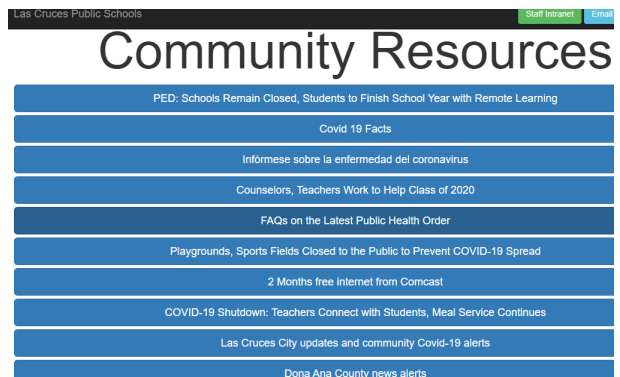

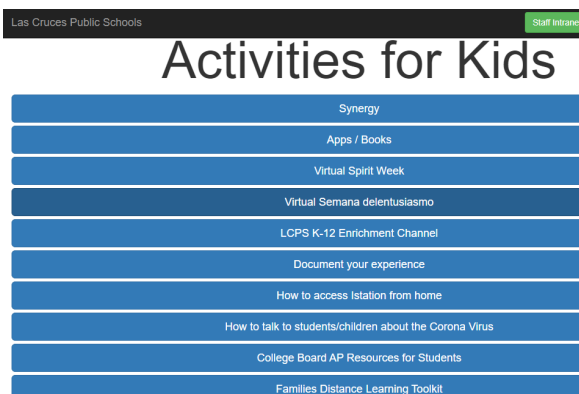

There are so many resources available online. I included some of them on an additional page in the last issue of the newsletter. You can find old editions on the Band App and on our website at centennialband.net. Additionally, LCPS has published a list of a variety of resources. Simply go to lcps.net to review them. The following are snapshots of the LCPS pages with resources.
